AN APPEAL TO END THE NUCLEAR THREAT: CONCERNED AMERICANS SPEAK OUT

Martin Sheen
Actor

President Jimmy Carter

Now is the Time.

The end of the Cold War has offered the most promising opportunity since the advent of nuclear arms in 1945 to free the world from nuclear danger.

Instead we witness the spread of nuclear weapon technology and a deepening crisis of the nuclear arms control regime fashioned by both Republican and Democratic presidents.

To take advantage of the new opportunity and avert the new perils, we call upon the United States government to commit itself unequivocally to negotiate the worldwide reduction and elimination of nuclear weapons, in a series of well-defined stages accompanied by increasing verification and control. As immediate steps along that path, we urge the global de-alerting of nuclear weapons and deep reduction of nuclear stockpiles.
